June-July 11, 2021 Programs

---

All Programs are free and open to the public. An adult must accompany children. Reasonable accommodations available upon request. For more information call (857) 399-1225 or email roxbury.heritage@mass.gov.

Thursday-Saturday
June 24 - July 10

History Table: Roxbury in the Siege of Boston 2:30pm- 4:00pm

Why do we have Evacuation Day? Drop by the History Table and learn about the critical role that this park site and Roxbury played in the American Revolution and the British evacuation of Boston. Appropriate for all ages.

Friday-Sunday
July 2 - July 11

Lawn Talk: Spinning for Liberty 1:30pm and 2:00pm

In 1768, Elizabeth Adams, who lived here with her husband and children, staged a kind of theater outside the Dillaway-Thomas House. Join us for a 10-minute talk about the spinning bees that she and other colonial women organized to boycott the British.

Friday-Sunday
June 25 - July 11

Dillaway-Thomas House Self-Guided Tours 10:00am - 5:00pm

Take a self-guided tour through the exhibit, which tells the story of the 1750 house and Roxbury's evolution over three centuries.

For a brief introduction about the history of the House meet in front of the Visitor Center during these times: Fridays, Saturdays, 11am-12pm; Sundays, 11am-12pm and 2:30pm-4:30pm.
